

Call for applications for Erasmus+ grants for E+ PhD mobility program in Law at Saarland University (l'Université de la Sarre) in 2024/2025

1. Mobility conditions

The mobility grant for the two-week E+ PhD mobility program is available to students currently enrolled in a PhD program in Law at UFAR. The program will be conducted in English.

2. The financial conditions of the mobility grant are as follows:

- Round-trip economy class ticket up to a maximum of 530 euros
- Living cost of 500 euros.

3. Documents to be provided for the application file

1. CV
2. motivation letter
3. abstract*
4. research plan*¹

4. Application submission procedures

Applications must be submitted as follows:

- By email to the Assistant to the Head of International Relations at Meri.Baghdasaryan@pers.ufar.am, with the subject line « Candidature Mobilité Sarre » and by adding (in the CC line) the Director of Studies at direction_etudes@ufar.am and the Head of International Relations at international@ufar.am.
- All document sent electronically must be in PDF format.

 There is no specific form for the plan or abstract, so it is up to the candidate and to you as selecting institution. The main goal is that the topic of research suits to the supervising staff.

- Using your UFAR student email account. No application submitted from an email address other than the one provided by UFAR will be considered.

5. Selection Criteria by the Jury

- Merit of the application (CV, motivation letter, abstract, research plan)
- Results of the interview
- English Language Proficiency (minimum of B2 level)

6. Schedule and Process

- Application deadline: October 19, 2024, 6:00 PM
- Interviews and language tests will take place between October 20-25, 2024

The website for Saarland University can be found at the following link:

<https://europainstitut.de/en/>.